2017 Retreat Weekends

WOMEN's February 10-12

MEN's February 17-19

How do we say no to the creator of space and time? Maybe I can fit you in – if there are no chores, no activities, no errands, nothing better to do...

How do we say no to putting our lives in his hands? I don't know if I can trust your hands that made me, that took the nails for me, that want to hold me and spend time with me...

Have you asked him if you should go?

When is the last time you entered a time of silence with God and asked, "God, what do you think I should do?" "God, what is your plan for my life?" So often we turn to others for advice, and yet God, alone, is the one with all the answers to life's most profound questions. God alone is the one whose love is constant and never disappoints. God has amazing hopes and dreams for your life – it's exciting! - aren't you curious? Don't be afraid. Just trust. Just do it.

Ask...Another...Special...Kid

What would you do if you came for Sunday Mass and there was NO priest present? This is the case in many locations here in our own Diocese of Davenport. Within 10 years we will have gone from 50 priests in ministry to only 38.

The Church needs your help! Who will be there for your spiritual needs? Who will baptize your children? Who will hear your Confession? Who will be there for your family's weddings and funerals? Have you ever considered a religious vocation?

How can you help? Become actively involved in supporting vocation awareness. The Serra Club of Davenport can help 563-888-4255 or www.davenportvocations.org.
