Edith's life and wisdom help women possess a soul-deep understanding of their worth. Their influence can change the world.

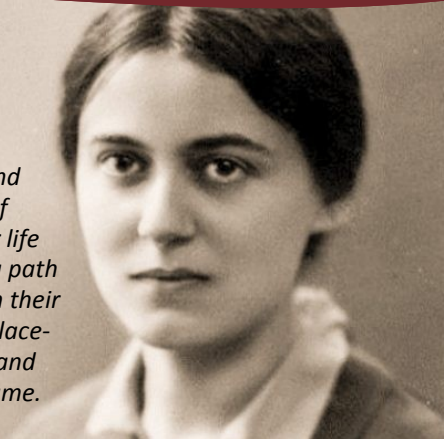

Are you ready?

Anne Costa travels from Syracuse, NY. She is a wife, mother, best selling author of six books and a gifted speaker. Known as a soul-stirring speaker who helps women tackle some of life's toughest issues—Anne will lead a day of renewal helping women understand, embrace and live their feminine genius. She'll introduce us to Edith Stein, her "friend & mentor" who helped Anne live her God-given dignity and with a new sense of clarity which transcends our busy lives and many roles women serve.

Edith Stein: Convert. Philosopher. Professor. Carmelite. Martyr. Saint.

Saint Edith Stein went beyond the limitations of her time of what woman achieved. Her life and writings show women a path to live authentically, reclaim their dignity and know their irreplaceable value. She lived boldly and inspires women to do the same.
