Moral Theology Talk | May 9

MORAL THEOLOGY 101

with Fr. Thom Hennen and Marianne Agnoli

Monday, May 9th | 6:30PM | St. Mary Church

Adults of all ages are invited to join the talk on Moral Theology with Fr. Thom Hennen and Marianne Agnoli from the Diocese of Davenport. Fr. Thom and Marianne will provide answers to many questions facing us today in regards to Moral Theology:

- How do we balance today's society with the moral teachings of the Church?
- What does the Catholic Church teach?
- Why does the Church teach that?
- How do we answer the questions our children bring home, so that we can help them understand the beauty and love of our faith?

Join us as we explore these questions and much more!

Please mark you calendar and plan to join us for the evening on May 9 in the sanctuary of the church.

Note: Monday Adoration will not be offered on May 9

Fr. Thom earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy and History from St. Ambrose then completed his theological and advanced studies degrees at the North American College in Rome. He was ordained to the priesthood in the Diocese of Davenport in July of 2004. Currently he is vicar general and director of vocations for the diocese, and serves as pastor for Sacred Heart Cathedral. Formerly he was Chaplain and Director of Campus Ministry at St. Ambrose and a part-time theology instructor at Assumption High School.

Marianne Agnoli, MPH, MPTh, has served as the Coordinator of Marriage and Family Life Ministries for the Diocese of Davenport for seven years. Prior to that she taught theology at Assumption High School in Davenport for nine years.

Happy Easter from Our Sister Parish in Africa!
